

PHOTOGRAPHS OF HENRY WILLIAMSON: THE DAILY TELEGRAPH MAGAZINE COLOUR LIBRARY

H.W. was notoriously camera-shy, and good photographs are about as easy to find as 1st editions of A Fox Under My Cloak! However, members of the Society may like to know that the Daily Telegraph magazine colour library is willing to produce positive prints as follows:

Edition No. 236, 18.4.69

- Page 30: Excellent, full-view of writing-hut, H.W. in foreground, face shadowed.
- Page 35: Very good interior shot of writing-hut, H.W. full-face, seated.
- Article: 'The Green Desert' by H.W., p. 30, 35, 37, 38. Photographs by Patrick Thurston.

Edition of 28.11.75

- Page 29: Interior of writing-hut, close-up of H.W. very clear, looking rather tense.
- Article: 'Recognising Henry Williamson' by Daniel Farson.

Unmounted colour prints cost £2.50 (5" X 7"), £3.50 (7" X 10"). £6.00 (10" X 15"). Cash with order to Daily Telegraph Colour Library,
75-79 Farringdon Street,
London EC4A 4BL.

Be sure to identify edition etc. clearly.

Copies of the related articles are available from the Daily Telegraph offices at 135 Fleet Street, London EC4P 4BL. Telephone: (01) 353 4242.
